

California Excursions

They're cheap. You'll save $30 or $40, depending on when you go and the limit desired. Stop-over and variable route privileges accorded.

$60

$50

Tickets on sale May 12, 13 and 14. Final return limit and 6; 10 to 22 inclusive; July 31. Also daily June and June 27 to July 5 in-1 to September 30. Final clusive. Final return limit October 31. Final return limit September 15.

These fares are from Kansas City and from Santa Fe stations in Kansas and Oklahoma. Corresponding reductions from points on other lines in connection with the Santa Fe.

For a small additional sum the trip one way may be made through Portland.

You will be carried on fast trains and dine on Harvey meals. You may travel on the California Limited—exclusively Pullmans, observation car and dining car—or in standard or tourist sleepers carried on three other trains.

Visit Grand Canyon Describing the trip to California and Grand Canyon. Free. will cost only $4.50 additional. Now's the time to Plan Your Vacation Expert assistance free. Write me now telling when and where you expect to go—a postal will do.

GEO. W. HAGENBUCH,
General Agent,
905 Main Street, Kansas City.

Border County Notes

Items of Interest from Last Week's Exchanges

CARROLL.

DeWitt will have band concerts this summer, the money being raised by subscription. This is a good idea and will prove a drawing card.

This is commencement week in DeWitt, today being the last day of the school term.

The lawyers of the Carrollton bar held an informal meeting Thursday and fixed June 1st as the date for their annual fish.

Since the first of January Dr. W. C. Baird, of Bogard has been called upon to preach 15 funerals in and near that locality.

The quarantine for smallpox, which has existed at the Normal in Chillicothe for some time, has been lifted.

The brick pavement on North Main street, Carrollton, has been completed.

Robert C. Lee, the young American who was captured by the Mexican regulars in a battle with the insurrectionists, and who gave his home address as Mount Washington, Missouri, is a Carroll county boy, and his father, John R. Lee, is now a citizen of DeWitt. His mother has written a strong appeal to the secretary of war, asking that everything possible be done to save the boy. Mr. Lee, the young man's father, was in Carrollton Wednesday and enlisted the services of some attorneys. They are writing to Senator Reed, Senator Stone and Congressman Rucker to enlist their services in securing the freedom or saving the boy's life.

The Carroll County Medical Society was reorganized last Monday with Dr. R. F. Gok as president.

Ninety-two years ago April 26, the first lodge of Odd Fellows was organized in the United States. Members of that order and sister Rebekahs celebrated at Hale, about 200 persons having a jolly time.

William Plummer and wife have returned to Hale after a six months' journey in the Western States, not one of which do they regard as fully the equal of Missouri.

Tomorrow is stallion and jack day in Hale, when many fine animals are expected to be shown. Hale was "cleaned up" the 2d. Keyteville needs a clean-up day.

Bosworth wants light, presumably because she is not a town of evil deeds.

Max Joe. Pierson, living ten miles north of Carrollton, died last Monday. She was 21 years of age and leaves a husband and three small children.

Mrs. James W. Griffith died at her home near Sugartree, Thursday afternoon. She was ill but a few hours. A husband and six children survive her.

Mrs. James McClain a former resident of Carrollton, died at Excelsior Springs Tuesday after a long illness.

MARRIAGES.

Enos A. Lanes and Miss Margaret Barrier, both of Bosworth.

J. L. Rashon of Toledo, Ohio, Miss Ida May Phillips of Carrollton.

Perce C. Lyman, Hale, and Miss Mary M. Campbell, Nevada, Ia.

B. F. Roe, St. Madison, Ia., and Bessie Long, Mendon.

James W. Gunn, DeWitt, and Mona E. Smith, Worthington.

Pearl Lee Mobly and Mary Callaway, Carrollton.

Joe O. Clark and Bertha M. Kallenberger, Hardin.

C. S. Woodlan and Mary Reed Tull, Carrollton.

HOWARD.

The Knights of Pythias, of Fayette, went to Boonville last Thursday and initiated eight candidates into the order.

In the debate at Centenary Chapel Tuesday night between representatives of Missouri Valley College of Marshall and Central College of Fayette the latter won.

The fire department of Fayette were called out Tuesday morning to extinguish a fire which had started at the home of Neal Griffin.

There will be a Home-coming at Roanoke on May 30, in connection with the Decoration day exercises. It will be the purpose to have an all day's program, with addresses, etc.

Sidney Estill one of Howard county's pioneer settlers, died at his home in Richland church vicinity, April 22.

William Wilhoit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilhoit, died last Wednesday of consumption.

Methodist laymen had a good meeting at New Franklin devoted to missionary matters. The address of Dr. C. F. Reid, for 21 years in China and Corea, inspired great enthusiasm.

Fayette's high schools have progressed very materially within three years, according to a statement of facts by G. L. Coleman, the principal.

The ladies of Fayette look after the city sanitary work and are trying that more funds be supplied them.

Miss Elizabeth Woods and Clifton R. Estill were married April 26 near Madison by Elder Zink.

Miss Alva L. Smith of New Franklin and Homer Armstrong of Montana will wed in June.

MARRIAGES

John Newton Garnett of Kansas City and Miss May Craig Bell of Fayette.

James C. Wishart, of Davenport, Iowa and Miss Bess Simpson of Fayette.

LINN.

Linn has gained in population this census.

Two alleged crooks were arrested at Marceline last week, supposed to have robbed Bigger & Oldham's hardware store. They were bound over to circuit court.

The Marceline concert band will give summer concerts there.

Beginning May 7 the Catholic Paulists will have services at Marceline for one week, morning and evening, conducted by an eminent Chicago priest and others.

Marceline township's 1910 expenses aggregated $1156.63.

A nine months' term of school is assigned for Marceline the next year.

At Marceline the Barney Gerry property was burned. Mrs. Della Pankey occupied it and lost most of her boarding house furniture. Sparks fired Mrs. A. Doyh's barn across the street and it was destroyed. All the burned property was insured.

L. A. Moorman, for five years school superintendent at Marceline, did not apply for the place next year. F. E. Bridwell of Buncheon was chosen for the place. There are 16 teachers under him.

There will be a meeting of socialists at Marceline the night of May 9, addressed by William D. Haywood of Colorado.

The Bulletin of Linnensis is 40 years old. Newspapers usually, like wine, grow better the older they become.

A telegram from Linnensis says—Ray Jones banker and farmer, died at Laclede April 25. Henry Tooley, merchant, died at Brookfield and E. C. Gregg, a hotel man, died the 24th. The three men died within 48 hours, all of pneumonia.

May Jones an insurance man of Laclede, died Saturday at his home near Laclede.

Ben W. Lane was born near Keyteville February 12, 1858, and died last week at Brookfield of heart failure. He went to Linn county when a child, was a war veteran, a Christian church member 46 years, and is survived by wife, four sons and two daughters.

Dr. N. J. Pettijohn, once a popular old-time physician of Brookfield, died at his home in Kansas City recently.

A. M. Noble and wife of near Brookfield lost a child of 4 and a younger one the same night. They were buried in one casket. The mother was so ill she could not attend the funeral.

MARRIAGES

Walter Francy and Miss Catharine Agnes McGlone, both of Brookfield.

John Blume of Olathe, Kan., and Ore Floray of Marceline.

LIVINGSTON

The Methodists will have a great time at Chillicothe May 11 and 12. At least four bishops, and 8 or 9 other eminent ministers, will be there to attend "the great parliament of home mission and church extension of the M. E. church." Delegates are expected from all over north Missouri.

Fire starting from a defective gas did considerable damage to the home of A. J. Miller, in Chillicothe, last Tuesday.

Ed L. Brown, who is soon to open a drug store in Chillicothe purchased the A. T. Kirtly home last Wednesday. Consideration $3,000.

The new airdome at Chillicothe is nearly completed.

On the complaint of the girl's mother, Louise Castner, 14 years old, of Chillicothe was sent to the State Industrial Home for girls Friday afternoon. The mother informed the officers that she was unable to control the girl, and that she wanted her daughter trained for a good, useful woman.

Col. S. J. Miller of Chillicothe, who sued the Kansas City Stock Yards Company for damages for an injury, was defeated in the suit. He has appealed to the supreme court.

Rev. E. B. Elmore, new Christian minister at Chillicothe, preached his opening sermon there Sunday. He is from Stuttgart, Ark. Rev. S. J. White, formerly at Chillicothe, has been called to Guthrie, Okla.

Hiram C. Woolsey, born in Livingston county, died April 25, from paralysis, near Breckenridge, where he was visiting a nephew. His home was at Ottumwa, Iowa. He was aged 68. Burial was near Breckenridge.

Hedge Howell of Chillicothe, died at Chula, where he had gone to visit his mother.

Miss Mary Nave, aged 78 years died Thursday morning at her home in Chillicothe. She had been a resident of this county for over half a century.

Charles Johnson of Highview died last Friday night from apoplexy. He was only ill about fifteen minutes.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Lillie D. Rose of Moberly has sued Chester Rose for divorce alleging unreciprocated love and the showering of kisses upon Annie Salladay.

Thomps Dameron's $20,000 suit against John N. Hamilton for hotel in the Huntville Herald will be tried in June.

As Yates deputy sheriffs found about 25 persons shooting craps and succeeded in arresting eight of them, the others escaping. All paid fines. The sheriff says Yates is a kind of gambling headquarters and that he will break up the games.

Attorney Jerry Jeffries addressed the Moberly Odd Fellows at their recent anniversary celebration.

Ab Dingle of Moberly two years ago bought American Lad, black horse, from Obe Myers for $300, and sold him a few days ago for $500 to Mrs. Harry Hawes of St. Louis. This horse is a son of Ortigo and a Randolph county mare.

L. E. Kappler, a popular Wabash fireman of Moberly, was married April 26, his bride being Maggie L. Jones of Parsons, Kans.

F. W. Patrick and Miss Alva Thierfelder will be married early in June. Both live in Moberly.

Lacien Golden, who has been serving sentence in the Huntville county jail, escaped Tuesday morning while the prisoners were being taken to the rock pile.

The trial of Jack Bullock, the Wabash fireman who shot and killed M. F. Ricker in Moberly on December 7, 1910, ended with a jury verdict of guilty of second degree murder and a ten-year penitentiary sentence. A new trial has been asked for.

The Moberly Shriners, Ararat Temple in charge, will have a big meeting today, entertaining their brothers from Kansas City—or, rather, each entertaining the other.

May 18 at night, the Moberly Retail Merchants' association will have an open session for business and pleasure.

The state convention of the

Dr. PRICE'S

CREAM

BAKING POWDER

Superiority in Strength, Purity,
Wholesomeness
Established:

U. S. Government Reports,
Highest Award
World's Columbian Exposition.

Sixty Years the Standard.

Knights of Columbus will be held May 9 at Moberly, with some 20 delegates.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Addie Lee Hamilton of Moberly died April 27.

J. T. Sims, aged 78, an old settler, died at Huntville last week.

Mrs. O. O. Moore was buried at Moberly Sunday. That city was her old home, but she died at St. Louis.

MACON.

The Macon Commercial club has employed a secretary, leased an office and is getting busy.

Odd Fellows at Bevier celebrated the order's 92d anniversary in the United States April 26.

Bevier township is the "pan-nor" one in Macon county in gain of population, in ten years gaining 255; Hudson next, with 234 gain.

A. L. Kinsey and wife of Bevier lost by death a son of 8 and daughter of 6 within a few hours.

Joseph Stott's residence west of Bevier burned recently, the fire badly damaging John Blakenstein's house and slightly that of Lewis Williams.

Judges Adams and Dwyer have suggested that Macon county settle her $2,200,000 old railroad "M. & M." bonds on a basis of $750,000. Commenting the Macon Republican says: "We say accept this compromise now and get rid of this annoying and expensive debt. Big as it may seem, the cost of settlement now offered is less than the cost directly and more especially indirectly to the county to continue our costly fight."

Macon got her "clean-up" May 1—a rather cold day for the work.

Macon's census population is 3584. Macon county 30,868.

W. A. Weakley's bondsmen sued him for shortage in his funds when he was circuit clerk, and judgment has been rendered against him. Defendant filed motion for new trial.

Many electric railroad lines are predicted for northern Missouri. Macon has good prospects for one, her papers say.

Alfred Dickens, son of Charles Dickens, will lecture at Macon on "My Father's Life and Works." Date not determined, but it will be some months later.

Mrs. Matilda Alexander died April 16, at the home of her daughter in Macon.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Geo. W. Griew 41, of Callao, is dead, aged 73.

MARRIAGES.

Johnnie Lay and Grace Reed, both of Ardmore.

Edgar R. Montgomery and Gertrude G. Muff, both of Macon. Over Utterback, Evansville, and Bertha C. Brownson of Atlanta.

SALINE.

A lodge of instruction was held at the Odd Fellows hall in Slater, Friday and Saturday of last week.

The directors of the Saline County Fair Association have elected officers, and are laying their plans for one of the best fairs the county has ever had.

Saline county has about twenty-five students at the University of Missouri.

Arthur Downs, who lived in Miami when a boy and is well known to the people of that place has bought the Corder Journal.

Arthur J. Wilson, a prominent farmer living three miles south-east of Marshall, died Tuesday, April 25, at the age of 64 years.

Mrs. Francis Steele, wife of Wm. H. Steele, died suddenly at her home three miles southwest of Slater Tuesday afternoon. Her death was supposed to be the result of apoplexy.

John W. Rue of Miami, died April 22, aged 49 years.

August Royer of Miami died April 12 after a long illness.

MARRIAGES

F. M. Cunningham and Mrs. Sarah Simmonds, both of Mt. Leonard.

William Jenkins and Zetta Bolling, both of Slater.

John J. Bloom and Bessie Temple, both of Sweet Springs.

Prince Errick

Is a fine sorrel trotting horse, 16 hands high and weighs 1200 lbs. He was raised by a thoroughbred Kentucky horse. He will make the season of 1910 at my farm 5 1/2 miles northeast of Brunswick, at $10 to insure colts to test.

HOWARD is a fine three-year-old Jack, 14 hands 3 inches high, registered in Cedar Rapids, Ia. He has good style and is a good breeder. He will make the season at the same place at the same terms.

Terms—A lien will be taken on mare until the colt is foaled, then lien on colt until season is paid in full. In all cases where mare is parted with or removed from the county before they foal the breeder will be held responsible for the season. Care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur.

E. A. MAGRUDER & SON.